100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home.

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1819.

The University of Cambridge. Massachusetts, has conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws on his Excellency Jose Corria de Serra, the Portuguese ambassador.

THE NAVY.

Our Norfolk correspondent has communicated the following information respecting the Constellation now fitting out at that port:

"The Constellation Frigate will sail shortly to join Com. Perry, who will then hoist his broad pendant on board this ship; she has a gallant crew, and for your satisfaction I enclose you a pretty correct list of her officers now on board, to wit:

Captain Wadsworth; Lieutenants—Shubrick, Crabb, Stallings, Tippett, Sawyer, and Stribbling.

Midshipmen—Kuhn, Keogh, Green, Richardson, Gay, Sterrett, Saunders, Steed, Pinkney, Lowndes, Palmer, Page, Turner, Carr, Handy, Starr, Mercer, Wright, Cocke, Hossack, Fairlie, Howell, Marston and Clinton.

The Peacock which is bound to the Mediterranean, is officered as follows:

Captain Brown; Lieutenants—Skinner, Evans, Wish, Whitlock and Griffin.

Midshipmen—Gillmyer, Davis, Barney, Rinker, Boughan, Carrbridge, Brown, Adams, Baker and Zantzinger.

We are concerned to state that fears are entertained for the safety of the U. States schooner Hornet, Lieut. Ramage, that during the same storm in which the Firebrand was lost, was cruizing off the Balize in quest of pirates, as no information had reached New-Orleans, at the latest dates, respecting her.

New-Orleans, August 4.

We learn from good authority, that the band of pirates that have so long infested the lower part of the Mississippi, and the adjacent lakes, have established themselves, to the number of fifty, on a piece of land between two small bayous, that empty into lake Barrataria. They have put themselves under the command of the noted Mitchell, whose life was long since forefeited to the offended laws. It is ascertained that they are now engaged in building a boat, doubtless with the intention of renewing their piracies; that they have a large field under cultivation, in which corn, and other articles of provision are raised in great abundance, and that they have a plentiful supply of livestock. It is said that they have fortified themselves with something like a breast work, and some cannon of small calibre.

Among the evils inflicted upon us by the late hurricane, it is none of the smallest that it frustrated a well planned expedition, fitted out against these pirates by the commander of the naval forces on this station. The principal vessel intended for this service (the Firebrand) was lost when she was on the point of sailing, and it is feared that two others, which formed a part of it, have shared a similar fate. What then remains to be done? Shall this borde of outlaws and ruffians be permitted to exist on the soil of the state, and perpetrate their crimes with impunity? Is there no means of extirpating them in the absence of a naval force? We trust the governor will cause the authority of the laws to be respected, to which end the constitution has placed the military force of the state at his disposal; and, if that should not be sufficient, he knows that a call upon the commanding officer of this military department would be promptly obeyed.—Friend of the Laws.

The Board of Health report for the last twenty-four hours, ONE new case of Yellow Fever.

August 28.

The Board of Health report for the last twenty-four hours, FOUR new cases of Yellow Fever.

JAMES A. MILLER, Clerk.

Norfolk, Sept. 1.

We have a report from Trinidad, that Bolivar had come into the possession of a considerable quantity of specie, which he had taken from the royalists by surprize.—It is certainly a thing which he was very much in want of. It is said further that the expedition composed principally of British troops, had sailed from Margaritta, for Cumana, on the Main. If they take that town, Barcelona, we should suppose must fall; by which means they can march directly upon the city of Caraccas—if Don Morillo does not object to it. Our readers are aware, that from the beginning of June till late in the autumn, an army cannot operate on the inundated plains between Angostura and Caraccas; so that news of but little butchery can be at present expected from that quarter.

On Sunday the 18th July, a boat with 3 officers and 10 men, arrived at Port Spain, Trinidad, (in the Gulf of Paria):—they had been sent up the Oronoco by the American frigate John Adams, Com. Perry, for a pilot, which they procured—but on their return, they could find neither the John Adams nor the schooner tender which was in her company. They relanded the pilot, and went to Trinidad, expecting the vessels had bore up for Port Spain.

From the Boston Daily Advertiser, of Monday last.

We learn from a friend in Trinidad, an extract of whose letter we publish to-day, that the united patriot forces under Generals Marino, Saraza and Burmudez, had gained a victory over a body of royalists under Gen. Arana, in the plains of Cumana; and that the city of Cumana was blockaded by the British troops under Col. English and General Utdaneta, by land, and Ad. Brion's squadron by sea. We shall publish the account at length to-morrow, as given by our correspondent.

Extract of a letter to the Editor, dated Port of Spain, [Trinidad,] July 20.

"On Sunday morning, the 18th instant, Mr. Doxey, master, and Mr. Parrot, a midshipman, belonging to the U. S. ship John Adams, arrived here in her long boat, with 14 men. They reported, that they were despatched by Com. Perry to examine the mouth of the Oronoco. Drifted by the current, they lost sight of their ship, as well as of their tender, the Nonsuch, and came up to Port of Spain, in hopes of finding the ship at anchor here.

"They were absent from the ship eight days, when they arrived here, and had when they left her but three days provisions.—They would have fared extremely bad, had it not been for the hospitality of the planters on the south of the island, who gave them provisions. I saw Mr. Doxey and Mr. Parrot, they speak in high terms of the hospitality of the Trinidad planters. I hope they may have reason to speak so of the government. They arrived here destitute of provisions and money, and with only the suit of clothes they had upon their backs. They have been supplied with both, and are refitting the boat, and will sail for Angustura, to-morrow morning, where they expect to meet with the tender.

"Their arrival here excited great curiosity, and it even was whispered among some weak and foolish people yesterday, that they had come as spies to reconnoitre our shores.

"The John Adams expected to have called here, and perhaps will be here shortly.—She called at Barbadoes, as we were informed by Mr. Doxey."

Baltimore, September 3.

THE FEVER.

We are happy to have it in our power to state to our readers that the reports of the physicians for the 24 hours ending on Thursday morning enumerate only two new cases of malignant fever.

The Board of Health, says the Gazette of last evening, have made arrangements to publish, hereafter, daily, the names of all persons interred within the city, so long as any cases of malignant fever are known to exist. [American.

Baltimore, Sept. 4.

We take the earliest opportunity to correct an erroneous statement which was made in yesterday's paper respecting the number of new cases of fever for the twenty four hours ending on Thursday morning. The new cases reported to the health office on that morning were only two—but it appears that Dr. Clendinen, whose professional duties prevented him from making his return to the police officer at the usual hour, has subsequently reported eight new cases for that day. The reports of Thursday morning, therefore, amount to ten cases.

The reports for the 24 hours ending on Friday morning mention ten new cases. [Ibid.

Hamilton, (Bermuda) Aug. 14.

A Bill is in a forward stage of progression through the house of assembly to authorize the appointment of sworn inspectors and measurers of all kinds of imported lumber. The authority for appointing as many persons as may be thought necessary or proper, we understand, is to be vested in the corporation of each town, (Hamilton and St. George's.) It will probably be left to the option of the merchants or parties concerned, to employ an inspector and measurer, or not. The fees proposed in the bill, are as follow:—White Pine, 2s; pitch pine, 2s. 6d. per M.; staves, 1s. 8d; shingles, 1s. (One shilling Bermuda or Jamaica currency, is exactly 15 cents.)

The following is an extract from a letter from a well-informed and impartial gentlemen in Trinidad, to the editor of this Gazette, dated the 28th July:

"There is nothing of consequence lately from the Main. Bolivar has advanced a considerable distance into new Grenada, which is represented as being in a state of rebellion. Paez was left by him on the river Apure, to keep in check the royalists about that quarter, which it appears he is capable of doing. The independents, it is fully believed, have had the advantage in every skirmish with the royalists this campaign—but they are a vagabond set altogether."

WHOOPING COUGH.

The Northampton Gazette states, that vaccination, or inocculation for the cow-pox, will arrest whooping cough.

This fact (says the Albany Daily Advertiser,) has also been verified in this city, by some of our most respectable physicians; and we have no hesitation in saying, that it is their opinion, that the vaccine inoculation, will in all cases relieve, if not wholly abate the whooping cough, and especially in infants and young children, to whom it is always dangerous and often fatal.

From the New-York Gazette of Sept. 1.

LATEST NEWS.

The London papers by the Elizabeth, captain Sebor, are to the 25th of July inclusive, two days later than by the Martha from Liverpool.

It will be observed, by an article which we have copied from the Sun, that a most awful excitement had been produced in London by the Smithfield meeting; but that perfect tranquility was restored.

The discussions at the common council on the second of July were scarcely animated. Alderman Smith stated, that a few minutes subsequent to the apprehension of Mr. Harrison, the worthy alderman, Waithman, not content with the letters he had written, came to Giltspur-street, and exclaimed, with much vehemence of manner, "I protest, my Lord Mayor, against these proceedings of yours"—he even approached the Lord Mayor, protesting, exclaiming, shaking his hand, and declaring that if blood was shed, it would be owing to the conduct pursued by his lordship.

Alderman Waithman rose and explained, and denied the abruptness with which he was accused—he might, he said, have been wrong, but he acted to the best of his judgment.

The harvest in the south of France had commenced under the happiest auspices. In England the harvest would commence on the Essex coast the first of August, three weeks earlier than last year, which promised an excellent crop.

On the 9th of July, reports were very current at Marseilles that there was to be an immediate war between the United States and Spain.

The plague at Tunis had carried off 30,000 people previous to the 3d of July, at which time it was beginning to subside.

The five Persian Students who had been three years in England, were on the eve of returning home. One of them, Oostude Muhomed Ali, is united to a Miss Dudley, an English lady of talents, who accompanies him.

A new sect of preachers, called "Ranters," have appeared in York, England. They preach in the open air, and contend for more lively religious feeling and sobriety of dress; particularly prescribing double-breasted coats, white hats, and half boots. London, July 24.

We have only to refer to the proceedings in the court of common council yesterday, to justify all the alarm which we felt on the revolutionary storm which impended over the metropolis, but which, owing to the wise arrangements of government and the city magistrates, has happily passed over without inflicting those horrors, which would otherwise most probably have spread confusion all over the empire. We raised a warning voice from the moment when the intended meeting was announced, and frequently renewed our call upon the good sense and spirit of the people, as well as upon our rulers, to be fully prepared to meet the menacing dangers. We were publicly and privately rebuked, even by staunch friends of government, for having, as they alleged, exaggerated those dangers, but we fully understood the Jacobin character, and were convinced, that no crimes could enter into the human imagination, which the Jacobins would not eagerly perpetrate. The Lord Mayor, to whom all possible praise is due, for his wisdom, firmness and decision, gave the most important information yesterday, which confirmed our anticipations, and proved that the danger was fully equal to our prophetic alarms. His Lordship stated, that he had received information on oath, that the object of the disaffected on Wednesday last was "to fire the great city, and murder all its peaceable inhabitants." Now it is by no means probable, that the Lord Mayor, who has shown so much sound wisdom, as well as true public spirit, would have stated this awful fact merely upon the oath of an individual, without the knowledge of many corroborating circumstances which his lordship did not think proper to disclose. The worthy magistrate stated also, that the daring and infamous hand-bill, which we inserted in our paper, in order to communicate to the country at large the desperate character and flagitious designs of the pretended reformers, exactly concucrred with the other alarming information which he had received respecting the intended conflagration throughout the metropolis, and the massacre of all its peaceable inhabitants. In justice to ourselves, we subjoin the following paragraph, which concluded an exhortation on the subject of the impending danger, which appeared in the Sun of the 9th inst. when we expressed our hopes that the meeting might be prevented.

"If the meeting were to take place, and were prolonged by the arts of the wicked agitators till night, we should not wonder if attempts were made to involve the whole Capital in flames. No crime can be imagined of which some of the reformers, revolutionists and rebels, who have signed the placard of invitation to the mob, are not capable, and therefore measures cannot be too promptly prepared, and too rigorously carried into effect, to avert the threatening danger.

From the N. York Commercial Advertiser.

By the arrival of the ship Elizabeth, Capt. Sebor, in 32 days from the Downs, we have received London papers to the 25th, inclusive.

The Courier asserts, that the Smithfield Meeting did not consist of more than ten thousand persons.

A French Squadron, it is said, is equipping at Toulon, and is to be joined by an English armament, for the purpose of clearing the seas adjacent to Gibraltar, of the South American privateers.

The ravages of the plague were diminishing in the Empire of Morocco.

Accounts from Madrid of the 8th of July, state, that the King had gone to Sarcedon; and the only Minister who had access to him there was Don Salmon, who holds, for the present, the porte-feuille of state.

The Madrid Gazette states, that "several small columns of light troops are now traversing Estramadura, to purge it of the numerous bands of robbers who have for some time infested it.

We have only time to make the following extracts from the papers:—

London, July 25.

A Common Hall, we understand, is to be held to-morrow, for the purpose of returning the thanks of the Livery to the Lord Mayor, for his efforts to preserve the peace of the City on Wednesday last. Mr. Hunt is expected to be present. He will, no doubt, endeavor to elicit an exposition of "the horrible plot," for burning the Metropolis, and murdering its peaceable inhabitants.—"A glorious row" may be anticipated.

From the London Courier, July 24.

We understand that the grand meeting of the disaffected, at Manchester, which was fixed for the 2d of August, has been postponed, some say to the 9th, others to the 22d or 23d; but it is more probable that it stands adjourned sine die.

On Thursday last, two indictments were found against WROE, the bookseller of Manchester, one for a libel, the other for sedition. He was held to bail on each, himself in 500*l.* and two bail in 250*l.* each.

We have received, this morning, the Paris papers of Wednesday last. They state that the enquiries which have been instituted, in consequence of the murder of Kotzebue, and the recent attempt to assassinate M. Ibel, have led to the discovery of a conspiracy in several German Universities, to overthrow the existing governments in Germany, and convoke a general assembly, to be styled The Senate, which should elect a prince to govern the whole Germanic territory.

The following are extracts:

Paris, July 21.

The Duke de Richelieu has arrived in Paris.

On the 12th inst. a terrible conflagration was caused by the negligence of an idiot, at Remy, in the department of the Oise. It consumed 325 farming and dwelling houses, and reduced to a state of indigence 200 individuals, who have now, no other resource than public charity. The loss is estimated at 600,000 francs.

Prussia, July 11.

Our government exercises, at this moment, a very active vigilance: several violent characters have been arrested. A few days ago, the authorities seized the papers of various students, as also those of an University professor. These unexpected measures have excited the most anxious feelings.

Rastadt, July 15.

Two students of the University of Friburg have been suddenly taken into custody. The papers of several others have been seized. It is asserted, that [illegible] investigations recently set on foot in [illegible] University of Giesen, have brought [illegible] light an association between several [illegible] versities.

A private letter dated Tunis, June [illegible] states that "the revolt which broke out [illegible] mong the Arabs on the confines of Tr[illegible] li has been suppressed. The plague has [illegible] ing appeared in the Tunisian camp, [illegible] Bey pressed the general to hasten his re[illegible] turn; the latter entered into negociation[illegible] offered on the part of the rebels, and upon [illegible] receiving considerable contributions [illegible] cattle, withdrew his troops, and arrived [illegible] Tunis yesterday."

The Funds.—Yesterday the second payment of the loan was made of 10 per cent. A very proper determination has been adopted by the committee of the stock exchange, that of not permitting clerks of stock Brokers to act upon their own account. This resolution has not been abided by, and the last account produced a number of those trifling defaulters, as they had beared to an amount considerably beyond their means of settling in consequence an investigation took place, and several of them are said to be expelled the house. The total amount of their speculation is said to be 900,000l.

From the London Times of July 24.

We congratulate our readers in the metropolis and elsewhere, on the peaceable termination of the Smithfield meeting last Wednesday. But our report of the proceedings of the court of Common Council held yesterday in Guildhall, will shew that as we were not acquainted with half our danger, so we were but slightly thankful for our preservation and security. The Lord Mayor informed the court, that he had received upon OATH, a most monstrous and diabolical project planned by the disaffected, and expecting its execution from the assistance of the assembled mob. This project was nothing less than that of setting fire to the whole city of London, and murdering its inhabitants. Contemplating the completion of so detestable an object, the seditious seem to have acted with a forbearance and temper truly surprising. Before the resolution of the populace could have been "screwed to the sticking point" of general conflagration and indiscriminate carnage, the most inflammatory harrangues and factious incentives must have been successfully applied. Without panegyrising the conduct of men whose visionary schemes we despise, whose principles we abhor, it may be permitted us to say, that we heard at the meeting of no such stimulants given to excite the perverted multitude. Could a more favorable opportunity have been devised by the ingenuity of a Cataline, than that which was presented by the apprehension of Harrison, for commencing the dreadful work of havoc and devastation? Yet he was carried off from the theatre of democratical distinction as quietly as an ox to his stall, with scarcely a single voice to bemoan his departure, without one single hand raised to protract his stay. If the ultra reformers were permitted to carry into effect all their monstrous schemes for altering the constitution, and directing the management of public affairs, we entertain not the smallest doubt, that the destruction of the state, and, what is less important, of themselves, would soon display the gross absurdity of their plans. We are equally convinced, that clamors against public abuses and political profligacy are most loudly vociferated by many Huntites and Cobbettites, who exhibit in their lives a total want of private worth and virtue. But whatever opinion we hold of these constitution menders, (and our almost daily censures of them will prove that it is not very flattering to their vanity,) we must still consider the tidings of this worse than the gunpowder plot as most extraordinary. The Lord Mayor may possess more information on this important point than he thought it judicious to communicate to the meeting at Guildhall—but we trust his lordship will pardon us, if we stoically withhold our credence of a story so shocking and so improbable, though given upon oath, till further accounts corroborate (which we trust they will not) the alarming detail.

London, July 23.

The Journal des Debats contains an extract of a private letter from Rome, which says, that the Princess of Wales has left Pesaro, where her Royal Highness had for some time resided. The writer of the letter adds, "that this sudden and romantic departure has given rise to a crowd of conjectures. Her femme de chambre had procured passports for herself and one of her female friends, which the Princess applied to her own use. Her 'Squire, Fianchini Pergami, has followed her. She has taken the road to Bologna."

On the eve of St. Peter's day the pope, according to ancient custom, made a solemn protest against the non-payment of tribute from the Duchy of Parma, as a fief held of the church, and also against the neglect of the king of Naples, to fulfil the formalities due from him as a vassel of the Holy See. The Ambassador of Naples absented himself from Rome, as usual on that occasion.

Leicester, July 23.

Our streets, during the last two days, have presented the appalling spectacle of thousands of frame work knitters (men and women,) out of employ, parading the town in peaceful solemnity, and calling upon all to "Pity the Distressed!"—They ask for employment, and in the remuneration of their labors are content with what their employers have heretofore deemed to be "reasonable!"——They have published, during the week, an Appeal, addressed to "A generous Public," in which they protest that to live by honest industry, without parochial aid, is the sole and anxious wish of their hearts!

The Rev. Joseph Harrison.—Yesterday morning, at an early hour, this person left the Giltspur-street Compter, in custody of two officers from Chester. He will arrive at Stockport this day, when it is expected he will be immediately bailed, notice having been sent to his friends for that purpose.

Valuable Land for Sale.

THE subscriber will sell at private sale, the tract of land on which he lives, containing about Fifteen Hundred Acres.

It joins the town of Warrenton, the seat of justice for Fauquier county—it is 42 miles from Alexandria, the city of Washington and Georgetown; 40 from Fredericksburg, and 45 from Winchester. This estate, in a neighborhood celebrated for health and good water, is well adapted to grazing and to the growth of corn and wheat. The turnpike road leading from Alexandria to Warrenton is finished, with the exception of seven miles. The improvements are a two story house, about fifty feet long, in the suburbs of Warrenton; two houses for overseers; a large barn, stables, and every necessary house for a farm. On the property are 3 good apple orchards, and a variety of other fruit trees. This tract is now divided into two farms—each of which has a superabundance of wood, and is laid off into six fields under good fences, with running water in every field. I believe there is a sufficiency of stone on the land to enclose the whole tract. Both farms have been under a course of clover and plaister for several years, by which they have been much improved, as the plaister acts with very great effect. The subscriber will divide the tract to suit purchasers. The terms are one third down, with an accommodating credit on the balance, if he sells a part; but only one fourth if the purchaser buys the whole tract, together with the stock of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, the farming utensils of every description, and all the provision that may be on hand for the support of the farm.

A large three story, well finished, brick house, with a store in front, and all convenient and necessary back-buildings; the former residence of Gen. Young, situated at the corner of King and Washington-sts. the most central and desirable situation for a genteel residence—for business—or would be admirably calculated for a boarding house, having a great many well finished and airy rooms.

A three story brick dwelling house, and store, with back buildings, and every convenience for a family, situated on King-street, & adjoining the former; the house at present unoccupied.—The store could be rented separate.

A two story frame dwelling house, on King-street, and adjoining the above, with a store or shop in front, and back buildings; at present occupied by L. Campbell.

A three story brick building, on Washington street, adjoining the corner property, at present occupied by Mr. Mason, as an office, and is well calculated for an office or store.

A brick office, adjoining the same, to the south, at present occupied.

Also,

A most valuable and desirable farm, called adjoining the property of W. H. Foot, in Fairfax county, Va. and containing about 170 acres. On the farm is a two story brick dwelling house, barn, and other out-houses. The land in a good state of improvement, and is capable of being made the most beautiful situation in that county.

A great bargain may be had for the whole or any part of the above property, if early application be made.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the

Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
